

Born to Lead

INSTRUCTIONS: Use the space provided to draw a picture of a good leader and list qualities you think a leader should have.

The worksheet is titled "Born to Lead" in a large, bold, purple font. Below the title, there are instructions: "INSTRUCTIONS: Use the space provided to draw a picture of a good leader and list qualities you think a leader should have." The main area of the worksheet is divided into two sections. On the left, there is a large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for drawing a picture of a good leader. On the right, there is a section titled "LEADER" in a bold, blue, outlined font. Below this title, there are eight horizontal lines, each preceded by a black dot, for listing qualities a leader should have.

Moses' Farewell

BIBLE STORY:

- Moses had led God's people for more than 40 years, but he could not enter the promised land.
- Moses told the people goodbye and gave a special message.
- Moses reminded the people to keep God's covenant.
- God selected Joshua to lead the people after Moses.

KEY PASSAGE: Proverbs 3:5-6

BIG PICTURE QUESTION:

- What does it mean to sin? To sin is to think, speak, or behave in any way that goes against God and His commands.

FAMILY DISCUSSION STARTERS:

- Why didn't Moses get to enter the promised land? [See Num. 20:7-12]
- What two things did God tell Joshua to be?
- Where does our strength and courage come from?

FAMILY ACTIVITY:

- Set aside time a few nights this week to pray with your family. Focus specifically on praying for the leaders of your community, church, and country.
